GLASGOW GALLOWAY BROTHERLY SOCIETY.—
The anniversary dinner of this Society took place in the Black Bull Hall yesterday se'nnight, when a numerous and respectable body of gentlemen, connected with Galloway by birth or marriage, assembled to refresh their early recollections, and reciprocate those friendly feelings which so eminently characterize the festive meetings of this Society. Mr Alex. Bryce, the President of the Society, was in the chair, and the duties of croupier were discharged by Mr John Macharg. The Chairman was supported by the Rev. Dr Brown, the Rev. Dr Paterson, Mr Alexander Morrison, Mr James Reid, Mr Robert Fleming, Mr John Keith, Mr Milroy, &c.; and the Croupier by the Rev. Mr Forrester of Paisley, Mr Win. M'Leod, jun., Mr John Goodwin, Mr J. M'Clure, Mr R. Kevan, Mr John Blackie, jun., Mr William Wilson, (Queen Street) Mr John Urie, Mr Gordon, &c. After a substantial and elegant dinner, purveyed in Mr Clark's best style, the Chairman gave the usual loyal toasts. The proceedings of the evening were wound up, as usual, by the toasts of "Horn, Corn, Wool, and Yarn," and "Fifty miles round Cairnsmuir."
