1 Information Collection and Use

The Galloway Association of Glasgow is the sole owner of the information collected.

We do not collect personal information about our Website visitors unless you choose to provide that information to us, thereby giving us permission to use that information to complete your enquiry. We will not provide personal information to outside parties, unless required to do so by a law enforcement agency.

We automatically collect and store information for statistical purposes which does not identify you personally. This information helps us to monitor how visitors use our website. This information may include your browser software (such as Internet Explorer and Firefox), your operating system (such as MS Windows and Macintosh), the name and domain of your Internet Service Provider and the Internet Protocol (IP) address of the computer you are using.

Users can choose to complete a Feedback Form, which will disclose online contact information (e-mail address), and may, if the user wishes, disclose additional contact information, such as physical address and phone number. We use this information to complete the transaction which the user initiates. We retain this information for an indeterminate period of time.

Users can choose to join our electronic Mailing List. If you decide to opt-in to our Mailing List, you will receive e-mails that may include news and details of forthcoming events. If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future e-mails, we include detailed unsubscribe instructions at the bottom of each e-mail.
